

GREAT IS "TIME."

Issue Today Brimming with Interesting and Timely Articles.

Napoleon I., the greatest of generals met defeat at Waterloo. He was outnumbered and could not successfully combat the forces of Wellington. Our Napoleon (Hitchcock) met an almost unexpected defeat at Hilo, where he found it inadvisable to face a maddened crowd dextrously handling the nozzle on the end of a hose. Emperor Napoleon was retired to St. Helena; a similar fate met Napoleon Hitchcock, who is now in retirement on Coconut Island.

The Time today will have an excellent cartoon showing Mr. Hitchcock and his marshal, Sheriff Andrews, meditating over affairs in their quiet retreat. Among the bits of reading matter is an article on Tennis, with a portrait of John Cook, president of the Beretania Tennis Club. "Our Neighbor" and some of "Jack de Ripper's" best work, in which he effectually does up various subjects. "The Mysterious Thirteen" are handled without gloves by this versatile writer, as are several other individuals.

Return of Hawaiian Singer.

Ben Jones, who returned from Boston on the W. G. Irwin, after singing at the Kilauea Cylorama at Chicago and San Francisco for several months, reports having had a very good time. John Bright is the only member of the quartet now in the States. He left recently to join the Quintette Club. The remaining three are in Honolulu. Jones said when he left, the Hawaiian band was giving concerts in Chicago.

Lots at Punahou.

As a result of the advertisement and notice in this paper yesterday regarding the new residential addition at Punahou, recently subdivided by Bruce Waring & Company, the place was visited by a large number of people, many of whom purchased lots. The location is the most desirable in the city. If you want a home, now is the time to make a start.

Bright Hawaiian Boy.

Harry Marchant, who went to Boston a few years ago to study wood engraving and pursued that study until a short time ago, is now at work on photo engraving. Latest accounts are to the effect that he is doing remarkably well and will return to Honolulu soon to put his knowledge into practice.

Salvation Army Tent.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the Salvation Army will dedicate their new place of meeting, the tent on the corner of Beretania and Alakea streets. At 3 p.m. Captain H. A. Langridge, from California, will be welcomed as the new commanding officer of the Honolulu Corps. Everybody welcome.

Cholera is Pau.

At the bottom of the page in the entry book at the Board of Health office, upon which were recorded the last cholera cases, is the word "pau," followed by the name of a physician whose services during the cholera epidemic have been of great value to the community at large.

The band concert on the Executive building grounds yesterday afternoon was well attended. Many people were pleasantly surprised at hearing the welcome notes, as the decision to give a concert was arrived at rather suddenly. The regular Saturday afternoon concerts at Emma Square will be resumed today.
